

Alexis India Alm, MNA, CFRE, CEC, CDE, CNC, CNE, CAP ®

A Proud board member of the Elgin Symphony Orchestra, Ms. Alm is a highly regarded nonprofit professional with over 35 years of executive leadership and fundraising experience. She has established successful, multi-million-dollar major gift campaigns and is known as a planned giving guru for local, community-based organizations. She is an AFP-certified Master Trainer and the former board chair of CFRE International.

Ms. Alm is highly credentialed and has earned graduate-level certificates in Leadership and Management and a certificate of Specialization in Ethics from Harvard Business School Online. She also has a Master's in Nonprofit Administration, is a Certified Executive Coach (CEC), a Chartered Advisor in Philanthropy (CAP), a Certified Nonprofit Consultant (CNC), and a Certified Development Executive (CDE), and is currently working on her Doctorate in Education (EdD) in Executive Leadership at the American College of Education.

In addition to being an accomplished executive leader in nonprofits, Ms. Alm is a violinist. Born into a family of musicians, she is passionate about supporting music programs in schools and the community.